

May 4, 2007,

Dear Trev,

Here are the pics from my last gig, there's a ton of 'em as I told you.

Also, last Friday there was a memorial for my friend Bruce, whom I told you about and after the memorial, that night there was a party with people playing. Anyway they were handing out lots of stuff including copies of his one album by his band, Bag of Hammers, which was a trio. And as happens many times, I thought of you, but also of some of our recent conversations about music, so I thought you might like to hear it. It was done in the early '90s and produced by my friend Mike Vogelmann, who's been in many of my bands playing bass (mostly) and drums sometimes and some other instruments. It's been a while since I've heard it, but I know there's some good songs on there, but I think we both felt the vocals are too low in the mix. Anyway, I hope you enjoy it.

Peter
